Friday 15th February 2019

It is hard to believe that we are already half-way through this academic year! What an extremely busy and exciting half-term it has been, including trips to White Scar Caves, Sealife Centre and Imagine That! Our Year 3 Service project is well underway and groups of pupils have been volunteering their time at Astley Grange Nursing Home, sharing activities with residents. This has been an invaluable experience for our pupils, teaching them the importance of empathy and caring for those less fortunate than ourselves, in our local community. A huge 'thank-you' to pupils and parents who have demonstrated absolute determination to ensure that their attendance is perfect this half-term. We are so impressed with your superb attitude. We wish you all a very relaxing half-term break iA

Miss Kola will iA, be getting married during the half-term break. We would all like to wish her eternal happiness as she begins the next chapter in her life.
